

Spotlight: 121 Giving

Is your organization in need of non-food items like paper goods, cleaning supplies, electronics and more? 121Giving is a free to use online market place exclusively for nonprofits that offers wholesale discounts on items ranging from kitchen and cleaning supplies to furniture and clothing. Registration is easy and free, the marketplace is always free to use, and the discounts are hard to beat.

"Our goal at 121Giving is to level the playing field so nonprofits of all sizes have access to the same deals on the tangible items they need to operate and do good work. If you can't afford to buy, we offer item-specific crowd funding tools that allow your supporters to help you buy you exactly what you need!" – Rachael Teague, Community Support Specialist at 121 Giving

Food Safety & Civil Rights Training:

CAFB has discontinued hosting the Food Handling & Civil Rights classes as of March 6, 2016. All partners will be responsible for receiving their Food Handler (Food manager if OP/OS meal site) and Civil Rights trainings in their own time online. Visit the "Resource Center" on the CAFB website for links to all trainings.

Deadline for registration with free T-shirt: April 15

Deadline for registration: April 22

Closures: June 11-18, 2016

The Capital Area Food Bank will be closed June 11-18, 2016 as we move into the new facility! There will be no pick-ups, deliveries, or shop-for's on these days.

If you normally pick up or receive deliveries on these days, either order extra food the week prior to the closure or contact Michelle White to schedule an alternate pick-up day at CAFB. Pick-up dates and times are subject to availability. Regional deliveries will not be rescheduled, but agencies who usually receive deliveries may schedule a pick-up at CAFB as our schedule permits.

This closure will affect the ordering deadlines for agencies that pick up or receive delivery on Monday, June 20 or Tuesday, June 21. Refer to chart below:

Orders for pick up or delivery on:	Your order is due on:	By:
Monday, June 20	Wednesday, June 8	9 a.m.
Tuesday, June 21	Thursday, June 9	9 a.m.
Wednesday, June 22	Monday, June 20	9 a.m.

Monthly Reports: April 1-15

March's monthly report is due April 1st but will be accepted until April 15th before your agency is placed on HOLD status. Submit your reports HERE
